ORDER:

In the reference 1st read above, Government have constituted a Committee to study the best national and international practices and systems in the field of Inland Waterways transport and tourism, and to make comprehensive recommendations on management of waterways traffic (including passenger, goods, tourism, and water sports) including its registration, Licensing, Regulation, and safety etc, in the State of Andhra Pradesh. The tenure of the Committee is 3 months.

2. In the reference 2nd read above, Sri K.Durga Prasad, IPS, (Retd), Member of the above said Committee has stated that the Committee started functioning with effect from 23.11.2017 and therefore, tenure is going to be completed by 22.02.2018 A.N. There is a need for further continuation of the Committee beyond 22.02.2018 for another period of (4) months and therefore requested the Government to extend the tenure of the Committee.

3. Government, after careful examination of the matter, hereby extend the tenure of the Committee for another period of (3) months beyond 22.02.2018. The Committee should submit its final report without seeking further extension of time.

4. The Committee members should also get in touch with the Inland Waterways Authority of India and study their practices and regulations etc., and give their report.
